WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

Managing General Partner

William V. Bidwill, managing general partner of the Football Cardinals, has spent his entire life with the Big Red--the last three years as the team's chief executive.

Two of Bidwill's first administrative moves upon assuming command late in 1972 were the hiring of head coach Don Coryell and director of operations Joe Sullivan, a team which was very instrumental in the Cardinals' 10-4 record and NFC Eastern Division championship last year.

A son of former Big Red president and owner, the late Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a member of Pro Football's Hall of Fame, Bill served last year as chairman of the St. Louis Salvation Army's "Tree of Lights" Christmas program. He also is on the board of directors of the Cardinal Glennon Hospital for Children, the St. Louis Municipal Theatre Association, the St. Louis Blues Hockey Club and the St. Louis Soccer Stars.

The 44-year-old Bidwill, a graduate of Georgetown University and a veteran of Navy service, lives in St. Louis with his wife Nancy and their four sons and one daughter.

JOE SULLIVAN

Director of Operations

Joe Sullivan, whose personnel moves last year were a major contribution in the Cardinals' rise to the NFC Eastern Division championship, begins his third season as the team's director of operations and his 19th year of association with the National Football League.

Sullivan's endless list of duties specifically involves trades, supervision of the Cardinals' college and professional scouting, contract signings and personnel relations.

Sullivan, 51, came to the Big Red from Washington, where he had served as assistant general manager and assistant coach in 1971-72. He began his NFL affiliation with the Green Bay Packers' personnel department during the 1957 draft. In 1959, he joined the Chicago Bears in a similar capacity.

He spent seven seasons with the Bears before going to Los Angeles in 1966 as special assignments coach under George Allen, and then followed Allen to Washington in 1971. A native of Milwaukee and a veteran of the Marine Corps, Sullivan and his wife Joan live in St. Louis.

DON CORYELL, Head Coach

"He seems an innocent in a game which frequently devours even the cautious. He is direct in a sport dominated by the devious. He is a legitimate cliche--a man's man, a player's coach and a coach's coach. But his inescapable sensitivity adds human dimension to the concept which has become accepted as an athletic ethic.

"His philosophy of football is that of the underdog. And he has prospered with it. He is a teacher, a psychologist, a cheerleader. But most of all, he is a football coach. Simply and totally."
--Rich Koster, St. Louis Globe-Democrat, writing in the Sporting News.

Don Coryell, the miracle man who coached the Football Cardinals from the bottom to the top of the NFC's Eastern Division in only his second year, acknowledges this season the Big Red will not have a big advantage they had in 1974--the element of surprise.

Surprise it was last year, as the Cardinals, coming off three straight 4-9-1 seasons and picked to finish no higher than fourth in the five-team NFC East, stunned the league by winning their first seven games and finishing with a 10-4 record, including a 7-1 mark against their division foes.

The division record was the best since the NFC East was formed in 1970, and two of the victories were against Washington, marking the first time a team had won both regular season games against George Allen's Redskins.

For his efforts, the quiet, unassuming yet fiercely-competitive man was a consensus winner as NFL and NFC coach of the year. One rival coach voting in the Sporting News' poll perhaps put it best--"If Coryell doesn't win, you might as well throw away your poll."

As to where the Cardinals stand in 1975, Coryell says, "We know that to repeat we must improve at almost every position. From a pure talent standpoint, we cannot match up to many of the good NFL teams. That's why we will need the effort and dedication we received last year."

He adds, "Last year, three of our four losses were games that could have gone either way. Yet, there were eleven of those games for us last year, and we won eight. It was that close.

"I feel we will be better, barring the unforeseen, but I don't think you can base improvement on records--to shoot, say for 11-3. I would hope we can reach the playoffs again and go a little farther. That's improvement."

The 50-year-old Coryell was handed the Cardinal reins on January 18, 1973, after an outstanding 15-year college head coaching career in which he won more than 83 per cent of his games and never experienced a losing season. The last 12 years were at San Diego State, where Coryell's teams, using a pro-style attack that stressed the passing game, posted an amazing 104-19-2 record (84%).

Before Coryell's emergence at San Diego State, he had left his mark at Whittier College, where in 1957 he succeeded Allen. In three years, Coryell posted a 23-5-1 record and three conference championships. His 1959 team led the nation's college division teams in total offense and passing.

After a year as backfield coach at Southern Cal in 1960, Coryell landed the head coaching job at San Diego State and inherited a team that had won only two games in the two previous seasons combined. Things quickly changed. Coryell posted a 7-2-1 record his first year—that would be the Aztecs' second poorest mark in his 12 seasons.

At San Diego, Coryell had three unbeaten seasons—11-0 in 1966, 9-0-1 in 1968 and 11-0 in 1969. His teams won 25 consecutive games during a period from 1965-67, and after that streak ended, Coryell coached the Aztecs 31 games in a row without a defeat.

He was named NCAA District College Division Coach of the Year four times (1963-66-67-68), and San Diego State was selected the nation's top college division team by both wire services in 1966-67, and first by UPI in 1968. The Aztecs were promoted to university division status in 1969 and when Coryell left four seasons later, the school had laid claim to 18 individual and team NCAA offense records.

Born in Seattle, Wash., on Oct. 17, 1924, Coryell graduated from high school there in 1943, then spent the next three years in the U.S. Army, receiving an honorable discharge as a first lieutenant after paratrooper duty in Japan. He attended the University of Washington, graduating with a B.A. degree in 1950 and a M.A. degree a year later.

His first coaching stops were as an assistant at Punahou Academy in Honolulu in 1951, head coach at Farrington High School in Honolulu in 1952, and head coach at the University of British Columbia in 1953-54.

In 1955, Coryell moved to Wenatchee (Wash.) Junior College and turned a team which had not won a game the season before into undefeated state champions. A year later, he was athletic director and football coach at Ford Ord, Calif., and recorded another unbeaten season. From there, it was on to Whittier and the start of the success story.

Coryell is married to the former Aliisa Gronroos, and they live in suburban St. Louis with their two children: Mike, 18, and Mindy, 14.

Assistant Coaches

RAY WILLSEY, Defensive Coordinator

Credit for the dramatic improvement of the Big Red defense last year must go in part to Ray Willsey who enters his third season as defensive coordinator. The 1974 Cardinal defense allowed only 218 points--lowest total in the team's 15 St. Louis seasons and 147 fewer than in 1973. It was a satisfying season for Willsey, 45, who previously had been an assistant with the Cardinals for their first two years in St. Louis (1960-61).

A quarterback-defensive back at California in 1951-52, Willsey played in more minutes as a senior than any other Golden Bear. In 1953, he played with Edmonton of the Canadian Football League under coach Darrell Royal. He was an assistant at Cal in 1954-55 and rejoined Royal at Washington (1956) and Texas (1957-59). After leaving the Big Red in 1961, he was an assistant with the Washington Redskins (1962-63) and head coach at Cal (1964-71) before rejoining the Cardinals. A native of Regina, Saskatchewan, Ray and his wife Barbara are the parents of three daughters.

JIM CHAMPION, Defensive Line

Jim Champion, under whose guidance the Cardinals' defensive line made rapid improvement last year, begins the second season in his second coaching stint with the Big Red. Champion, 49, was the Cardinals' line coach in 1966 and then served as head coach of Vancouver in the Canadian Football League from 1967-70. Jim previously had been an assistant there from 1962-65. He was a Big Red scout in 1973.

A native of Natchez, Miss., Champion was an all-conference tackle at Mississippi State and played in the NFL for three years--with the New York Yankees in 1950-51 and in 1952 when the team moved to Dallas. After three years of high school coaching, he was an assistant at his alma mater from 1957-61. In 1971-72, he was an assistant with New Orleans. Champion and his wife Sara are the parents of three sons.

JOE GIBBS, Offensive Backs

Joe Gibbs, 34, both a player and coach for Don Coryell at San Diego State, begins his third season in charge of the Big Red's running backs. Gibbs, who coached nine years in college before joining the Cardinals, played as an offensive lineman and linebacker at San Diego State in 1961-63. He was a graduate assistant there in 1964-65 and became offensive line coach in 1966--with the Aztecs going 11-0.

His other college stops included offensive line positions at Florida State (1967-68), Southern California (1969-70) and Arkansas (1971-72). At Florida State, where he was offensive coordinator in 1968, both Seminole squads made bowl appearances. The 1969 Trojans finished as undefeated Rose Bowl champions. Born in Mocksville, N.C., Gibbs and his wife Pat are the parents of two sons.

HARRY GILMER, Quarterbacks and Receivers

Harry Gilmer, an outstanding college and NFL performer, begins his 19th NFL coaching season and his second stint with the Cardinals. Gilmer was the Big Red's quarterback coach from 1967-69, before coaching with the Atlanta Falcons from 1970-74. Other NFL stops were at Pittsburgh (1957-60), Minnesota (1961-64) and head coach at Detroit (1965-66).

A legendary quarterback at Alabama, Gilmer, 49, was the NFL's No. 1 draft choice by Washington in 1948. The versatile performer was with the Redskins until 1954 as a quarterback, running back and defensive back--twice gaining all-pro honors--and played at Detroit in 1955-56. A native of Birmingham, Ala., Gilmer and his wife Katherine have a son, three married daughters and two grandchildren.

SID HALL, Linebackers

A former defensive coordinator for Don Coryell at San Diego State, Sid Hall enters his third season with the Big Red, his second as linebackers coach after working with the line in 1973. The experienced NFL assistant previously had served as linebacker coach with the Oakland Raiders (1969-70) and as line coach with the Los Angeles Rams (1971-72).

Hall, 49, played at Bakersfield (Calif.) Junior College and University of the Pacific, gaining all-Coast honors as both a center and linebacker as a senior in 1950. He coached at Porterville (Calif.) Junior College (1953-56), Pacific (1957-60) and Idaho (1961) before his stint at San Diego State (1964-68). Hall, born in Maricopa, Calif., and his wife Mary are the parents of two sons and two daughters.

JIM HANIFAN, Offensive Line

Jim Hanifan, 41, begins his third season with the Big Red's offensive line, which last year set a team record and led the NFL in fewest quarterback sacks (16). He served in a similar capacity for Don Coryell at San Diego State in 1972 and had been passing-game coach at California in 1970-71.

Hanifan starred for Cal as an end from 1952-54, leading the nation in receiving as a senior and earning all-coast honors. He was with Toronto of the Canadian Football League in 1955 and played service ball under Coryell in 1956. Other college coaching stops were at Yuba (Calif.) Juco (1959), Glendale (Calif.) Juco (1964-65) and offensive coach at Utah (1966-69). A native of Compton, Calif., he and his wife Mariana are the parents of a son and daughter.

WAYNE SEVIER, Special Assignments

Wayne Sevier, 34, starts his second season with the Cardinals working on special assignments, the team's computer programming and special teams. Sevier, who was Don Coryell's first quarterback at San Diego State, joined the Big Red last July on a seasonal basis but became a fulltime coach in February.

A native of San Diego, Sevier played freshman football in 1959 at the University of Washington and as a sophomore at Chaffey Junior College before leading San Diego State to a combined 15-4-1 record in 1961-62. A mathematics major, he taught and coached from 1963-73 at San Diego area schools, including the 1968 season at Cal-Western, now called U.S. International.

Personnel Department

GEORGE BOONE, Personnel Director

George Boone, in his third year as the Big Red's personnel director, is well qualified to lead the team's college scouting operation. Boone, 36, began his NFL work in 1966 as a scout for the Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine for seven league teams, including the Cardinals. He came to the Big Red in 1968 as assistant personnel director, a post he held for five seasons. He was promoted to his present position in March, 1973.

Born in Louisville, Ky., Boone was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle at Kentucky from 1957-59 and was an assistant coach with the Wildcats from 1960-65. While at Kentucky, Boone received both a bachelor's and master's degree in education. He and his wife Dedee are the parents of four girls and a boy.

STAN WEST, Personnel Scout

Stan West, with the longest tenure of the Big Red's personnel scouts, begins his 11th season as a full-time scout. A former all-America lineman at the University of Oklahoma, the 49-year-old West also starred for eight years in the NFL.

West gained his all-America honors with the Sooners in 1949 and was a first-round draft choice by Los Angeles in 1950. He started at linebacker for five years for the Rams and also played for the New York Giants (1955) and the Chicago Cardinals (1956-57). He was an assistant coach with the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-63, stayed out of football for a year, and joined the Cardinals in 1965. West lives in Norman, Okla., with his wife Mary Frances and their two sons.

BO BOLINGER, Personnel Scout

An all-American at Oklahoma like his fellow scout Stan West, Bo Bolinger begins his fifth season as a full-time scout on the Cardinal staff. Bolinger, a small but sturdy guard, received his all-America honors in 1955 and was also a two-time all-conference selection with the Sooners.

Bolinger, 42, came to the Cardinals before the start of the 1971 season after serving as an assistant coach from 1969-70 with Calgary in the Canadian Football League. Before going to Calgary, Bolinger had coached at Utah State, New Mexico, Tulsa and Denver. He and his wife Barbara are the parents of three daughters and live in Tempe, Ariz.

MATT LAIR, Personnel Scout

With more than 26 years of football coaching and scouting experience, Matt Lair begins his second season as a full-time personnel scout with the Big Red. Lair, 50, came to the Cardinals after working for six years with the Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine of seven NFL teams including the Cardinals.

Born in Paris, Ky., Lair played at the University of Kentucky from 1941-42 and 1946-47. He was a high school coach in Kentucky and Alabama for five years and then spent the next 15 years in assistant roles at Kentucky, Texas A&M and Texas Tech. He joined CEPO in 1968. Lair and his wife Helen live in Tupelo, Miss.

LARRY WILSON, Pro Scouting Director

Larry Wilson, the most popular player ever to play professional football in St. Louis, begins his third off-the-field season as director of pro scouting — an increasingly important and multi-faceted job with emphasis on Cardinal and other NFL personnel transactions. Wilson, 37, was named to the newly-created post at the end of the 1972 season — following 13 years as a premier NFL safety.

The legendary No. 8 was a seventh-round draft choice from Utah in 1960, switched from running back to defense and immediately became a starter — making famous the safety blitz devised by the late assistant coach Chuck Drulis. From there, he proceeded to lay claim to ten all-time Big Red records, including almost every interception mark. He made eight Pro Bowl trips, led the NFL in interceptions in 1966 with ten and tied a league mark that year for interceptions in seven straight games. Born in Rigby, Ida., Larry and his wife Dee Ann, are the parents of two sons and a daughter.

Training, Equipment

JOHN OMOHUNDRO, Trainer

The increasingly important job of caring for the health of the Football Cardinal players again will be handled by hard-working and dedicated John Omohundro, who begins his fifth season as head trainer. Previously, "Johnny O." had served four seasons as assistant trainer.

A native of Salt Lake City, the 32-year-old Omohundro earned a bachelor's degree in physical education at the University of Wyoming. He worked there as an assistant trainer and was head trainer at the College of Southern Utah before coming to the Big Red in 1967. Omohundro and his wife Martha are the parents of a son.

JIM SHEARER, Assistant Trainer

Jim Shearer, who also received his training experience at the University of Wyoming, begins his second year as the Big Red's assistant trainer. Shearer, 25, received his bachelor's degree from Wyoming in 1972 and later returned for graduate work in 1973-74.

The native of Worland, Wyo., spent the 1972-73 school year in Gillette, Wyo., where he served as the town's assistant recreation director and worked with the local high school's athletic program. He served as graduate assistant trainer at Wyoming in 1973. Shearer and his wife Nelma live in St. Louis.

BILL SIMMONS, Equipment Manager

The task of assembling and caring for the Big Red's vast equipment resources falls for tenth straight season into the capable hands of Bill Simmons. Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1966, Simmons had been a teacher at Ferguson Junior High School.

Born in Kansas City, Simmons, 51, earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Northeast Missouri State University around tours of military duty in World War II and the Korean War. He and his wife Katie have five children and two grandchildren. Eldest son Dan is in his third year as equipment manager for the New Orleans Saints, while younger son Tim is in his second year as his father's assistant with the Cardinals.

1975 NFL RULES CHANGES

1. Having more than eleven men in a huddle will be unsportsmanlike conduct. Penalty--15 yards from previous spot.

2. A fourth-down pass from the line of scrimmage inside the opponent's 20-yard-line will be returned to the scrimmage line instead of the 20 if it is incomplete.

3. Penalty yardage for having an illegal player downfield and for offensive pass interference will be reduced from 15 to ten yards--joining holding, illegal use of the hands and tripping, which were reduced in 1974.

4. If there is defensive holding downfield and the passer is thrown for a loss, the penalty will be assessed from the line of scrimmage, not, as in the past, from the point which the thrower was sacked.

5. If fouls are committed by both teams, one of which calls for disqualification, the penalties will be offsetting, with the disqualified player banned. In the past, a penalty was assessed the team of the disqualified player but the penalty against the other team was ignored.

6. If an offensive team uses a double shift within its opponent's 20-yard-line, it must have shown it in a game three times previously, instead of three times in a quarter before using it inside the 20.

7. All field decorations must be approved by the NFL. Chain crews must be dressed uniformly as will ball boys. Clubs must use standard sideline markers. Pylons will replace flags for goal line and end line markings.

FORMULA TO BREAK STANDINGS TIES FOR POSTSEASON PLAYOFFS

To break a tie within a division, these steps will be taken, in order: (1) Best won-lost percentage in head-to-head competition; (2) Best won-lost percentage in games within division; (3) Best won-lost percentage in games within conference; (4) Best point differential in head-to-head competition; (5) Best point rating (offense and defense) applied to division games; (6) Best point rating applied to 14-game schedule; (7) Coin flip.

In selecting the wild card team, if there are two or more teams tied with the leading won-lost percentage, these steps will be taken: If there are more than two teams tied and two are from the same division, the division tie first will be broken. The surviving ties would then be broken under the following conference tie-breakers.

To break a tie within a conference, these steps will be taken, in order: (1) Best percentage in head-to-head competition. This is applicable in a three-way tie only if one club beat both others or one club lost to both others; (2) Best won-lost percentage in games within conference; (3) Best point differential in head-to-head competition; (4) Best point rating applied to conference games; (5) Best point rating applied to 14-game schedule; (6) Coin flip.

The point rating system is based on points scored and points allowed by each team, with each of the 13 teams in each conference rated from 1 to 13 on offense and defense. The team with the lowest number of rating points is the winner. These would be computed on division games, and if still tied, on all 14 games to break a division tie; on conference games, and if still tied, on all 14 games to break a conference tie.

How The Cardinals Were Built

At the end of the 1974 season, there were 50 players active or on reserve with the Cardinals. This is how they were acquired.

1974 Game-By-Game

Game 1 — Cardinals 7, Eagles 3

September 15 at St. Louis (40,322) — Cardinals forced Eagle QB Roman Gabriel into four straight incompletions from nine-yard-line in final 27 seconds for season-opening win. Big Red took 7-3 lead with 1:56 to go in second quarter and threatened twice in fourth quarter. Eagles took ball with 2:08 left on own 21 and drove 70 yards but couldn't score. Gabriel finished with 23 completions in 39 passes for 208 yards but was sacked five times. Jim Hart passed for 192 yards and Ken Willard ran for 61.

Game 2 — Cardinals 17, Redskins 10

September 22 at Washington (53,381) — Defense did it again for Big Red, winning in Washington for first time since 1967. Trailing 3-0, Cardinals took lead for good at end of first quarter, when LBs Pete Barnes and Larry Stallings sacked Billy Kilmer, who fumbled. Ron Yankowski scooped up ball and went 71 yards to TD. On next possession, Terry Metcalf ran 75 yards for score. Redskins threatened late — with first down at Big Red 10-yard-line with three minutes to go, but Kilmer threw three incompletions and was intercepted on fourth down by Jim Tolbert.

Game 3 — Cardinals 29, Browns 7

September 29 at St. Louis (43,372) — Big plays pushed Cardinals to third straight win. Despite poor offensive showing in first half, Big Red led 7-0 on Norm Thompson's 56-yard interception return TD. Terry Metcalf opened second half with dazzling, open-field 94-yard kickoff return TD. After Browns' lone score, Big Red struck again on first play from scrimmage — a 68-yard pass from Jim Hart to Mel Gray. Big Red rushed for 171 yards and held Browns' ground game to only 93.

Game 4 — Cardinals 34, 49ers 9

October 6 at San Francisco (48,675) — Long-range scores again were Big Red weapon in fourth victory. San Francisco jumped ahead, 9-0, in second quarter, but Cardinals scored on five straight possessions — last of first half and first four of second half — to storm in front. Two of TDs were 57 and 59-yard passes from Jim Hart to Mel Gray. Cardinals rushed for 223 yards — 95 by Terry Metcalf — and Hart completed 11 of 19 passes for 184 yards and three TDs. Big Red held 49ers to only seven pass completions and forced two interceptions.

Game 5 — Cardinals 31, Cowboys 28

October 13 at St. Louis (49,885) — Exciting game was Big Red's first victory over Dallas since 1970 and fifth straight in 1974. Cardinals led 21-14 at halftime and 28-14 early in third quarter, but Dallas tied score with 3:51 left in game. Cowboys previously had kicked short to keep ball away from Terry Metcalf but elected to go deep. Metcalf returned kick 57 yards to Cowboy 34 to set up Jim Bakken's game-winning 31-yard field goal with 1:02 left. Jim Hart passed for two TDs, and reserve receiver Gary Hammond set NFC season high with 81-yard pass to Jackie Smith to set up first Big Red score.

Game 6 — Cardinals 31, Oilers 27

October 20 at Houston (26,371) — Cardinals recorded sixth straight victory for best opening-season start in team history. Again, it took a long kick return by Terry Metcalf — this time a 61-yarder after Oilers had scored twice in fourth quarter narrowing lead to four points — to assure win. Big Red ran for 211 yards, 77 by Metcalf, 76 by Jim Otis and 58 by Donny Anderson, and Jim Hart passed to Earl Thomas for two TDs. Oilers held to only 85 rushing yards but Dan Pastorini completed 29 of 40 passes for NFL season high 354 yards.

Game 7 — Cardinals 23, Redskins 20

October 27 at St. Louis (49,410) — Cardinals remained lone undefeated team in NFL and became first team to defeat George Allen-coached Redskins two times in one season. Big Red struck quickly — on 53-yard interception return TD by Roger Wehrli and 52-yard pass from Jim Hart to Earl Thomas — for 16-0 lead. Hart finished with 15 completions in 19 passes for 200 yards. Redskins closed to 16-13 in third quarter, but Hart teamed with Donny Anderson for 19-yard game-clinching TD toss. Redskins scored to move to 23-20 with 6:13 left but Big Red controlled ball for four first downs and ran out clock. Wehrli's interception TD was first in his career.

Game 8 — Cardinals 14, Cowboys 17

November 3 at Dallas (64,146) — Big Red's first loss came on 20-yard field goal by Efren Herrera with four seconds left. Cowboys drove 68 yards for field goal, 35 coming on three Cardinal penalties. St. Louis twice took leads — on Jim Hart TD passes of 19 yards to Jackie Smith and 10 to Mel Gray. Hart had been sacked only two times in seven games but was thrown for losses three times by Cowboys. Big Red ran for 134 yards with Jim Otis gaining 69. Terry Metcalf, who missed entire second half, was held to 37.

Game 9 — Cardinals 24, Vikings 28

November 11 at St. Louis (50,183) — Jim Hart completed 28 of 43 passes for 353 yards and two TDs in brilliant Monday night performance but Cardinals fell short. Two costly fumbles enabled Vikings to drive only 27 and 13 yards for early TDs, but Big Red scored ten points in final two minutes for 17-14 halftime lead. Minnesota dominated second half to take 28-17 lead. Cardinals scored with 1:52 to play, held Vikings on downs, and moved to Minnesota 25 but time and downs ran out. Mel Gray and Jackie Smith each caught six passes and Terry Metcalf five.

Game 10 — Cardinals 13, Eagles 3

November 17 at Philadelphia (61,982) — Cardinals broke two-game losing streak with outstanding defensive effort that held Eagles to field goal for second time in 1974. Cardinals led 7-0 at halftime and added two field goals by Jim Bakken in second half. Meanwhile Big Red defense held Eagles to 71 rushing yards and sacked QB Roman Gabriel nine times, second most in team history. Eight came in second half, with tackle Bob Rowe and reserve end Bob Bell each recording three. Terry Metcalf ran for season high 97 yards and Jim Otis added 84.

Game 11 — Cardinals 23, Giants 21

November 24 at New Haven, Conn. (49,915) — Big Red moved closer to first divisional title since 1948 on Jim Bakken's game-winning 36-yard field goal with three seconds left. Giants led 14-6 midway in third quarter, but two Jim Hart TD passes — the second a 45-yard bomb to Mel Gray — gave Cardinals 20-14 lead with 4:50 left. Giants moved for go-ahead TD with 1:16 to go, but Big Red quickly mounted game-winning drive. Hart completed 25 of 42 passes for 259 yards, while Giants' Craig Morton passed for 257.

Game 12 — Cardinals 13, Chiefs 17

December 1 at St. Louis (41,863) — Chiefs spoiled Big Red division title-clinching hopes and retained Governors Cup. Snowy, slippery conditions resulted in nine fumbles, three interceptions and 17 punts in game, in which Cardinals led at halftime 6-0. Len Dawson cranked up Chiefs in second half for 17-6 lead with only 3:42 to play. Cardinals rallied and moved to 17-13 on Terry Metcalf's second TD with 2:49 left. Big Red regained possession and drove to Chiefs' 30 but ran out of downs. Metcalf caught a season high nine passes in game.

Game 13 — Cardinals 0, Saints 14

December 8 at New Orleans (57,152) — Saints played spoilers as Big Red offense stalled. Cardinals shut out for first time since 1971 season. Saints outrushed St. Louis, 228-64, with rookie Alvin Maxson running 22 times for 148 yards, most ever for a Saint back, and 66-yard TD. Big Red drove to Saints' 18 in first half and to eight in fourth quarter but could get no points. Jim Hart passed for 181 yards, was sacked four times. Loss tied Big Red with Washington atop NFC East with 9-4 records.

Game 14 — Cardinals 26, Giants 14

December 15 at St. Louis (47,414) — Trailing 14-0 at halftime, Big Red exploded in second half for NFC East title, first division crown since 1948. Win gave team 10-4 record, best ever in St. Louis, and 7-1 mark against NFC East opponents. Big Red defense intercepted four Craig Morton passes in second half, turned three into scores. Roger Wehrli's 32-yard punt return set up first Cardinal TD. Interceptions by Jim Tolbert and Wehrli started next two TD drives to give Big Red 20-14 lead. Pass theft by Larry Stallings on next possession set up insurance TD. Jim Hart passed for two scores, and Terry Metcalf gained 76 rushing yards and two TDs.

NFC Division Playoffs — Cardinals 14, Vikings 30

December 21 at Bloomington, Minn. (44,626) — Cardinals scored first but second half Viking explosion ended Big Red playoff hopes. Three key turnovers — missed field goal at end of first half, and interception and fumble in third quarter — were big plays for Vikings, who became NFC champions the next week against Los Angeles. Jim Hart completed 18 of 40 passes for 200 yards with Earl Thomas catching six, Mel Gray five. Fran Tarkenton passed for 169 yards for Vikings and Chuck Foreman rushed for 114 yards.

1975 POST-SEASON GAME PRIORITY

On the weekend of December 27-28, the NFC and AFC divisional playoff game matchups will be as follows: The two division winners with the best regular season won-lost percentage will be the home teams. The division winner with the best percentage will be host to the wild card team and the division winner with the second best percentage will be host to the third division winner.

If the wild card team is from the same division as the winner with the best percentage, the division winner with the best percentage will be host to the third division winner and the second highest division winner will be host to the wild card team.

For the NFC and AFC conference championships on January 4, the surviving division winners with the best regular season won-lost percentages will be the home teams. Any ties in won-lost percentage will be broken by the tie-breaking procedures now in effect. (See page 35).
